Key information

Before completing this form you should contact your conveyancer to complete a declaration. Your conveyancer won't be able to request your withdrawal until they've received this.

To withdraw for a home purchase you'll need to:

- ✓ Be a first time buyer (turn over for information);
- ✓ Have had your HL Lifetime ISA open for at least 12 months since the first payment was received;
- ✓ Be buying a home in the UK that costs £450,000 or less;

- ✓ Be buying the property with a mortgage, or as part of a regulated home purchase plan;
- ✓ Live in the property once the purchase has completed, or if the property is in the process of being made habitable, once habitable. If you're a crown servant working overseas you must intend to occupy the property at some point in the future; and;
- ✓ Not have claimed or intend to claim a bonus from a Help to Buy ISA.

What is a conveyancer?

A conveyancer is a legal representative who carries out the purchase of a property on behalf of the buyer e.g. a solicitor.

WITHDRAWING FROM A LIFETIME ISA FOR A HOME PURCHASE – QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What happens next?

1. Complete and return this form to our address.
2. We'll then send your conveyancer a form to complete and return to us requesting your withdrawal.
3. We'll submit your withdrawal request to HMRC.
4. We'll send your requested withdrawal to your conveyancer.
5. After this, your home purchase must complete within 90 days of the withdrawal date (the date your conveyancer received your withdrawal).
6. Once your home purchase has completed your conveyancer must let us know within 10 working days of the purchase date.

When can I use my Lifetime ISA to buy my first home?

To be used to purchase your first home your Lifetime ISA must have been open for 12 months. The Lifetime ISA is deemed open by HMRC on the date that the first payment is received or once the Direct Debit has been collected.

What if the purchase isn't complete within 90 days?

If the purchase isn't complete within 90 days your conveyancer can request an extension of 60 days, and then a second and final extension of an extra 30 days.

The total window for completion, with extensions, is 180 days. To request an extension your conveyancer will need to let us know and we'll contact HMRC.

What if the purchase falls through or doesn't complete within the above timeframes?

If the purchase falls through your conveyancer must return the money to HL to be put back into your Lifetime ISA within 10 working days.

Any money that isn't returned will be subject to a 25% government withdrawal charge which you will need to pay to HMRC.

What if I am a UK crown employee?

If you, or your spouse, are a UK Crown employee serving overseas (e.g. a member of the armed forces serving abroad), you can buy the property to be your only or main residence upon your return to the UK.

What if I need to sell my investments?

Your Lifetime ISA must be in cash before we can pay your withdrawal. It's cheaper to sell your investments online by logging into your account at www.hl.co.uk. Otherwise, we can do this for you using this form.

If you want to take a partial withdrawal and for us to sell your investments, you should tell us the order you would like to sell your Lifetime ISA investments in section 4.

If you are instructing a full withdrawal we will sell your holdings as soon as we process this form. If you don't want this to happen please attach a covering note to explain how you'd like to proceed.

What are the dealing charges?

Selling shares:

- Online: £11.95 per deal (as low as £5.95 for frequent traders)
- Phone and post dealing: 1% (£20 min, £50 max)

Selling funds – free

If you're instructing us to sell funds please make sure you tell us both the name of the fund management company (e.g. Jupiter) and the name of your chosen fund (e.g. Global Strategic Bond).

What is a first time buyer?

You're a first-time buyer if you don't own, and have never owned, a residential property anywhere in the world, either by yourself or together with someone else. This includes any property that you inherited or that was given to you.

Can I use my Lifetime ISA to purchase a home with someone else?

Yes, the other person doesn't have to be a first time buyer and there is no limit on the number of people who can buy a home. The other person can also use money held in their own Lifetime ISA or Help to Buy ISA (if eligible), but the entire property must be valued at £450,000 or less

What if I have an outstanding bonus claim?

We won't be able to close your Lifetime ISA or complete a full withdrawal until the bonus has been paid.

If you need your withdrawal sooner, you can request a partial withdrawal in section 2 and ask us to leave £50 in your Lifetime ISA.

A second, full withdrawal request can be made once your bonus has been paid by HMRC if the home hasn't been bought.

When will my bonus be paid?

We'll claim any outstanding bonus on your behalf, and this will be paid 4-9 weeks after a payment to your Lifetime ISA.
