What is this Product?

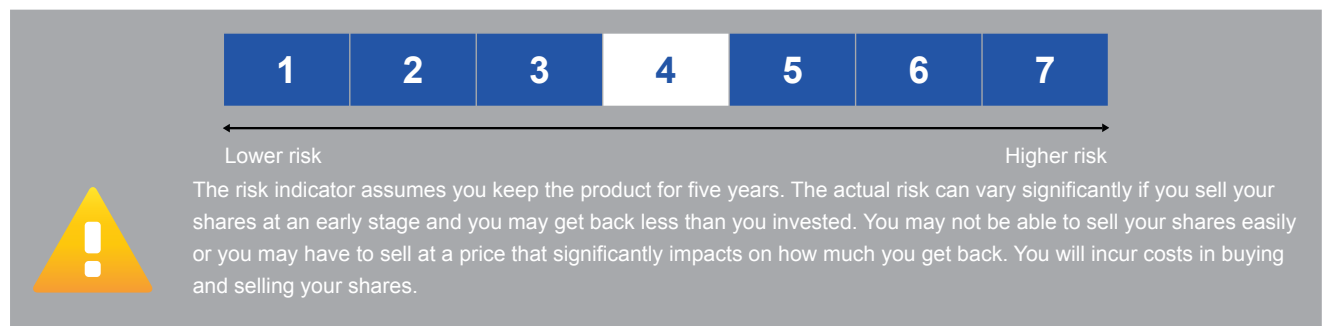

This product is a closed-ended property investment company incorporated in England. The investment objective is to generate a consistent and sustainable income based return from the provision of Supported Housing accommodation assets and aligned sectors. This objective is supported by a comprehensive Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) framework that seeks to deliver environmental improvements and seeks to achieve improved outcomes for individuals and society. The Company will seek to achieve its objective by investing in a diversified portfolio of fit-for-purpose Supported Housing accommodation assets and aligned sectors across the UK which will be let or pre-let to registered charities, housing associations, community interest companies and other regulated organisations that are eligible to receive housing benefits or comparable funding from local or central government, predominantly on index-linked leases.

In order to achieve a portfolio that is diversified by property, tenant and location, at least 80 per cent of the gross asset value will be invested in Supported Housing accommodation assets and aligned sectors; and up to 20 per cent of the Gross Asset Value may be invested in real estate assets which are ancillary or contiguous to Supported Housing accommodation assets. Gearing calculated as borrowings as a percentage of the Gross Asset Value, may not exceed 40 per cent. at the time of drawdown. The Board currently intends that, over the medium term, borrowings of the Company will represent approximately 30 per cent. of Gross Asset Value at the time of drawdown.

This investment may be suitable for an investor seeking to include some exposure to Supported Housing Accommodation assets within a balanced portfolio. This product may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money in under five years.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets.

We have classified this product as 4, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level. In periods when market conditions are poor, the value of your investment may fall and may impact the amount you get back in the long term.

In addition to market price risk, this product also carries restricted diversification risk, credit risk, interest rate risk, liquidity risk and leverage risk.

The value of your investment can go down as well as up. There can be no assurances that the objective of the Company will be achieved. The use of gearing can enhance returns to investors in a rising market, but if the market falls the losses may be greater. As the shares are traded on the London Stock Exchange, their price is driven by factors such as the demand and supply between buyers and sellers. A price may not accurately reflect the underlying Net Asset Value (NAV) of the Company's investments. The share price may be higher at a premium to the NAV or lower at a discount to the NAV. Discounts and premiums vary constantly.

What are the risks and what could I get in return? (continued)

Assuming you invest £10,000, this table shows how your investment could perform and what you could get back over the next 5 years under different scenarios. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past but are not an exact indicator. What you get will depend on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment. Market developments in the future cannot be accurately predicted. The scenarios shown are only an indication of some of the possible outcomes based on recent returns. Actual returns could be lower.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, where applicable, but do not include all the costs that you may pay to your advisor or plan manager, or local transaction taxes.

What happens if the Company is unable to pay out?

The Company's shares are listed on the London Stock Exchange. Should the Company be liquidated, the amount you receive for your holding will be based on the value of assets available for distribution after all other liabilities, but before shareholders, have been paid. Shareholders in this company do not have the right to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme in the event that the Company is unable to pay out.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown below are the cumulative costs of the product itself depending on how long you remain invested. The figures assume you invest £10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future. The person selling or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, that person will provide you with information about those costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Investment £10,000
Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 year	If you cash in after 3 years	If you cash in at 5 years

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

BMO Investment Business Limited recommends a minimum holding period of five years for investments made into this Company. The value of the properties held is the opinion of the Company's independent professional valuers at a point in time. They may not be supported by recent transactions and are liable to revision, up or down. The Company's shares are traded on the London Stock Exchange and valuations are subject to market factors so investment should be made with a long term view. It is possible to sell your investment on any business day of the Exchange by contacting a Broker dealing in the Company's shares. What you get back will be influenced by the market factors at the time of sale. If you sell your shares before the end of the recommended holding period you may increase the risk of receiving back less than you invested.
